

United States Embassy Dakar, Senegal
Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Protests at Obélisque Square
January 30, 2015

The U.S. Embassy in Dakar advises U.S. citizens that the Opposition Senegalese Democratic Party (PDS) is scheduled to hold a sit in protest at Obelisque Square on January 31, which PDS leader and former president Abdoulaye Wade will reportedly attend. The protests are being called to denounce perceived violations of the freedom to assemble and the alleged mistreatment in detention of Karim Wade, the son of Abdoulaye Wade.

U.S. citizens are encouraged to avoid the square, practice good situational awareness and remain observant at all times. Be aware that protests and demonstrations intended to be peaceful can quickly escalate into violence. Avoid crowds, political gatherings, and street protests and demonstrations, even if they appear to be peaceful. Exercise caution when in the vicinity of demonstrations or police activity and be aware of your surroundings at all times. When travelling by car, keep your doors locked and windows up.

We strongly recommend U.S. citizens traveling to or residing in Senegal or Guinea-Bissau enroll in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program \(STEP\). STEP enrollment gives the latest security updates, and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency. If you don't have Internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.

In addition, if you wish to participate in the optional SMS/text messaging program to receive security notices via text message, please send an email to DakarACS@state.gov for additional information.

Regularly monitor the State Department's website, where you can find current Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and the Worldwide Caution.
